Marrying Western Roots with Modern Flair

RESORT

Bowie House is an imaginative and bold new urban retreat that draws visitors to a place whose history is built on tales of frontier valor and adventure. A long standing community gathering place, Bowie House continues to be a social hub for locals and visitors with numerous spaces for visitors to enjoy the conviviality and camaraderie that have distinguished the location for so many years. Visitors can sip cocktails in the library or relax in cabanas on the second story outdoor infinity pool overlooking a peaceful garden oasis.

WELLNESS

The Auberge Spa takes design inspiration from the ubiquitous barns of Texas while offering modern, holistic and all natural treatments in this center for renewal. Wellbeing guestrooms, a fitness center and an outdoor pool, complete with private cabanas, occupies the soothing second floor space.

LOCATION

Bowie House sits at the center of the Fort Worth Cultural District, amongst the park-like setting of internationally-renowned, architecturally-acclaimed museums and the Will Rogers Memorial Center, a celebrated equestrian and event facility that attracts millions of visitors each year.

Only 35 minutes from Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport.

ACCOMMODATIONS

An exciting gathering space for locals and visitors alike, the four-story, 106-room boutique hotel will feature 88 studios, 12 lofts, and 6 suites, including a 1,800 square foot signature suite. The guest rooms at Bowie House reflect a local story of long-standing traditions that have evolved into decadent comforts that haven't forgotten their roots. Luxurious spaces weave together details from Western culture and style like boot jacks and hat racks with contemporary furnishings, lighting and artwork creating feelings of welcome and warmth.

DINING

On the ground level, a colonnaded lobby will uphold the building's traditional classical architecture and welcome guests and locals with an array of places to gather and socialize. Dining options include a signature restaurant, Bricks + Horses, facing a private enchanted garden with outdoor seating and a Texas sized private dining room, a relaxing lobby bar and lounge, which is buzzy from day to night, offering guests and locals a place to gather from early morning to late night.

MEETINGS & EVENTS

Flexible spaces on the expansive ground floor include a billiards room with pool and table games and a rose-colored lacquered Library Room. A lofty pre-function space with bar room leads to a dramatic grand ballroom that will be one of the most elegant event spaces in all of Texas.

Silverton Room - 4,255 square feet

The Arcade - 1,883 square feet

Pewter Room - 575 square feet

Laney's Room with Outdoor Terrace - 637 square feet (indoor space)

Mulberry Room - 608 square feet

Billet Room - 1,604 square feet

Goodnight Suite - 1,803 square feet

AMENITIES

The Resort boasts a boutique filled with local treasures, a barn-inspired signature Auberge Spa and fitness center. On a nature ensconced second floor terrace an outdoor pool features chaises and private cabanas, Whinny's outdoor pool bar serves dazzling beverages and light poolside faire.

Outside, the impressive gardens will feature hedges and florals that climb up the walls with pergola lounge areas tucked in for privacy so guests are completely surrounded by nature. Soft seating and intimate gathering spaces are accented with fireplaces, firepits and water features to create a beautiful surprise around every corner.
