

CAMBRIDGE EST. HOUSE 1756

AUBERGE COLLECTION

A Magnetic New Mayfair Destination

PROPERTY

Since 1756, Cambridge House has been the home where the Great and the Glorious gather. The centuries old landmark, which has welcomed tastemakers and world shapers throughout its rich history, will be the capital's most magnetic and vibrant gathering place and experience-driven luxury hotel.

The imaginative renewal from the exceptional design minds of Jean-Louis Deniot and Laura Gonzalez of this historic property at 94 Piccadilly will capture the spirit of London like no other, providing a captivating new Mayfair destination for Londoners and international visitors alike.

The most highly anticipated opening of 2026, Cambridge House continues a new chapter of its legacy.

LOCATION

Nestled in heart of Mayfair, between the serenity of Green Park and the vibrant Shepherd Market, the 102-room hotel and private members club is a stones-throw from the city's iconic historic landmarks and world-class culture, culinary and retail destinations.

ACCOMMODATIONS

The majestic 18th Century Georgian mansion and Grade 1-listed Palladian-style townhouse will be brilliantly reimaged as a 102-room hotel. Preserving its rich heritage while offering a harmonious blend of luxuriously private and vibrant social spaces replete with unique dining destinations and Auberge spa.

79 Guest Rooms
23 Suites including 6 Historic Suites and an
8500 sq Ft Penthouse Apartment

DINING

The lively dining scene at Cambridge House, Auberge Collection, will reflect the diverse allure of the property.

The hotel will offer a kaleidoscope of venues from Major's Grill the signature restaurant due to be the new epicentre of London's ever-evolving dining scene, that brings mid-century flair to a stately former ballroom with an adjacent open air courtyard. To a series of elegant salons for all-day drinks and dining and afternoon tea and a signature bar with a sensuous fumoir for fine and rare cigar and spirits pairings.

WELLNESS

Ushering in a new era of wellbeing where joy and pleasure are the guiding principles, wellbeing at Cambridge House is wellbeing without restraint.

An expansive three-floor wellbeing space with extensive facilities include the Auberge spa, inspired by Britain's healing lore and informed by its Roman bathhouses. It will introduce Auberge Collections unmatched holistic wellness offering to London. A heated swimming pool, bath house, steam and sauna, alongside six treatment rooms, all complemented by a circular relaxation lounge, centred by a fire pit.

A state of the art gym and three movement studios, including an immersive 360-degree digital room, offer a dynamic mix of classes and will be complemented by a curated Masters-in-Residence program encouraging social connection and affirming Cambridge House as an exclusive gathering place for London.
