A 13th Century Château Steeped in Serenity

RESORT

A place to find balance through art, nature, and the time-honored traditions of French country living, Domaine des Etangs is a magnificent stone château set on 2,500 forested and lakeside acres. Built more than 700 years ago by the knights of Chasteigner de la Roche-Posay, this storybook castle is an idyllic retreat steeped in serenity and devoted to l'art de vivre past and present.

LOCATION

Resting amid the tranquil ponds that gave it its name, Domaine des Etangs and its picturesque farmhouse cottages overlook rolling hills and verdant meadows in the charming town of Massignac, France. Just two hours by TGV train from Paris Montparnasse, two hours from Bordeaux and served by the neighboring Limoges airport, tranquil days spent at Domaine allow for convenient exploration of the stunning countryside near the storied Cognac and St Emilion and Pomerol regions of Bordeaux.

DINING

Few can claim as authentic and fleeting a farm-to-table journey as Domaine des Etangs. The freshest seasonal produce is handpicked daily in the estate's spiral-shaped organic garden, then prepared to perfection in the château's kitchens.

Dyades is the estate's main restaurant, which opens onto a terrace with picture-postcard views, but meals can be relished wherever you choose.

Savor a picnic in a peaceful glade, a barbeque, breakfast in Monade – the château's private dining room, or dine in your farmhouse cottage with the Domain's bistro-style menu elaborated by the Domaine's chef.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Immersed in the unspoiled countryside, six Metairie Cottages dot the property, offering coveted space and privacy. In addition, The Longère - or 'long house' - is home to four suites are decorated to reflect the seasons most of which are two stories and have private terraces.

Inside the château, seven more rooms and suites are at once a luxurious residence and impressive stage for art—from photographic compositions to Hermès chairs and suitcases stacked as drawers by Belgian designer Maarten de Ceulaer.

Le Château (7 suites & rooms),
The Metairie Cottages:
Dragon (5 rooms), Pégase (5 rooms), Serpentaire (3 rooms), Cassiopeé (2 rooms), Centaure (2 rooms), Licorne (1 room)

WELLNESS

Housed within a centuries-old mill, Le Moulin is the estate's dedicated wellness center – a rustic, waterside space in harmony with nature and the terroir. Here, where the curative powers of the Earth are harnessed, a rich sense of history encourages reconnection with the very foundations of life. A range of experiences – from thermal baths, to walks with forest wardens – encourage healing time in nature.
