TRAVEL INSURANCE

Auberge Safari requires that each person travelling with us carries insurance to cover the following:

- Cancellation or curtailment of trip,
- Emergency evacuation expenses,
- Medical expenses,
- Repatriation expenses,
- Damage/theft/loss of personal luggage, money and goods.

This insurance should include cover in respect of but not limited to the above mentioned eventualities. It is a condition of booking, and the sole responsibility of each Client, to ensure that they carry the correct comprehensive travel and medical insurance to cover their travel, as well as any dependants, for the duration of their journey with Auberge Safari.

Auberge Safari, including their representatives, employees and agents will take no responsibility for any costs, losses incurred or suffered by the Client, or Client's dependants or travelling companions, with regards to, but not limited to, any of the above mentioned eventualities. Clients will be charged directly by the relevant service providers for any emergency services they may require, and may find themselves in a position of being unable to access such services should they not be carrying the relevant insurance cover.

BANKING DETAILS AND PAYMENT INSTRUCTIONS

All existing banking details remain unchanged unless formally communicated in writing by an authorised representative. The official invoice issued for each booking will specify the designated bank account for payment. You are responsible for ensuring that payment is made strictly in accordance with the banking details reflected on the relevant invoice. We accept no liability for payments made to any account not expressly indicated on the official invoice.
